THE INCOME TAX BILL.

A bill introduced by Senator Sumnerfield of this county in 1895 to provide for a levy of tax upon incomes passed both Houses of the Legislature and was vetoed by the late Governor. The bill, with his objections, was returned to the Senate, where it originated at the present session, and passed that body with only one or two dissenting votes over the veto. It is made a special order in the House and may or may not pass that body.

While a majority of both Houses are believed to be in favor of a national income tax, as it seems to be the only way of making those who receive large incomes from the trusts and combinations which are organized to plunder the public, very many of the members of the Assembly express themselves as being opposed to a State income tax, and will vote to sustain the veto. They believe the provisions of the bill are unconstitutional and do not care to encounter the statutes with measures that they are satisfied the courts will declare null and void.

The tax proposed by the bill is graduated. On incomes in excess of $1,000 and less than $1,500 the tax is one dollar upon each one hundred thereof. A clerk, bookkeeper or foreman receiving $1,000 a year for his services would have to pay ten dollars tax, though every dollar which he received should be expended in maintaining his family and repairing the house in which he lived, and the house would be subject to taxation for State, county and municipal purposes as it now is. This would be double taxation and, it is claimed, at variance with the fundamental law of the State and would not be tolerated by the courts.

HELP FOR INDIA.

The mass meeting held in San Francisco last Thursday to devise means for giving assistance to the famine and plague stricken people of India resulted in the appointment of a well-chosen committee to undertake the work. The committee should receive cordial assistance from the people generally.

India is a land where the population is so large that it presses at all points upon the extreme limits of possible subsistence. When a crop fails it means starvation to many people of the district unless outside help is provided. In this case the district over which the famine prevails is so large and the population so numerous that the charity of the whole world is required to afford adequate relief to the sufferers.

Following the famine has come the plague. The half-starved people are dying by thousands of diseases. Even when we make the fullest allowances for exaggerations in the reports from the stricken districts enough will remain to make it certain that India alone is not capable of grappling with the evil which has beset her. Help must be sent from abroad. It should be sent from every land that has been blessed by Providence.

THE SUFFRAGE AMENDMENT.

The proposed amendment to strike the word "male" from the constitution of Nevada is dividing interest with the glove contest bill, which passed the Legislature last week. It was made the special order last evening in the Assembly, and caused a liberal expenditure of oratory in that body. Should the proposed amendment receive a majority in each house it will be submitted to the qualified electors of Nevada for ratification or rejection, as the majority may determine, at the next general election.

Strange as it may appear there are members who assume to prejudge the sentiment of the public on the question, and contend that, as a majority is opposed to it, they should not be given opportunity to vote for or against it at the polls. There are others, however, who hold to the old time doctrine that all power is vested in the people and that the amendment should be submitted to them at the ballot box. Whether those who entertain these views are in the majority in the Legislature remains to be seen. It costs nothing to submit the matter to the people, and they are the best judges of whether they want the women of the State to exercise the right of suffrage or not.

TELEGRAPHIC NOTES.

The Utah Senatorship is still undecided, with Thatcher in the lead.

Sophia Slezak committed suicide at Chicago yesterday by taking poison.

C. G. Dawes of Chicago is to succeed Eokels as Comptroller of the Treasury.

The Cooney perjury case is still on trial before Judge Cook in San Francisco.

President Cleveland has decided to veto the immigration bill recently passed by Congress.

Congressman J. D. Long of Massachusetts, it is understood, will be the next Secretary of the Navy.

The boys' dormitory at the Wesleyan Seminary, at Lima, N. Y., was burned yesterday morning. Loss, $6,000.

Henry Star & Co., a Chicago wholesale firm, made an assignment yesterday. Assets, $80,000; liabilities, $50,000.

One of the largest shoe factories in Boston closed down yesterday. No reason has been given, but it is supposed to be due to a disagreement between the manufacturers and the Shoemakers' union regarding the price list.

The cruiser Brooklyn, which struck a rock in the Delaware river last Saturday, is tied up by ice near Marcus Hook, Pa.

Bradley's bank at Eldon, Ia., was burglarized at an early hour yesterday morning. The loss is supposed to be about $7,500.

The Stockton, Cal., volunteers to the Cuban cause have backed out, as they fear being indicted for breaking the neutrality laws.

Lee McFarland, an old and trusted employee of the Parkersburg (O.) National Bank, is $43,000 short in his accounts. Too much stocks.

At Hollandburg, Pa., yesterday morning an attempt was made to blow up the building lately occupied by the banking firm of Gardner, Morrow & Co.

At Yokohama the jury in the case of Mrs. L. Carew, charged with poisoning her husband, rendered a verdict of guilty, and the defendant was to-day sentenced to be hanged. The sentence is subject to a revision by the British Minister.

The Great Prize Fight.

"The Nevada legislature yesterday passed the bill licensing prizefights."

Corbett, loquitor:

The bill is passed—what horrid news is this?

It seems that we can fight—oh, dreadful word—

And fight we must—the public loud demands!

Oh, blame it all, it's really too absurd! No longer on the stage I'll rake the coin—

No longer can I play a bold cadet—But I must get inside a ring once more, And pay the public a long-standing debt!

Oh, horrors! Think of it! That red-head brute,

With fists like cannon shots, like battering rams,

Will make one awkward feint, then swing and smash

My jaw with hideous gloves, the size of hams!

What can I do? I dare not skip—for now

My reputation's staked upon the chance, Oh, for some quiet, peaceful, Irish town,

Or sunny nook in far-off, happy France Where I could bask, and sleep, and act no more,

Nor battle redtopped demons in the ring.

Fierce, furious Bob—I know he'll murder me

And break my countenance with one wild swing!

Confound the Nevada legislature, anyhow!

Fitzsimmons, loquitor:

What's that? The fighting bill has passed? Oh dear!

Must I go up against the champion's blows?

No way to dodge? No pretext for delay?

Oh, Moses, how I hope he'll spare my nose!

For years I've chased Jim up and down the land,

And dared him to red combat day by day—

Full well I knew we had no chance to fight,

That every State would chase us far away!

And now Nevada—woe attend the name—

Says we can scrap within her dreary space—

And I must go and don a set of gloves,

And have Jim Corbett smash my blooming face!

Oh, dear! Oh, dear! What will he do to me?

He'll seek me on the bags, well I know.

He'll uppercut me, jab me counter-cross,

I never can duck his famous half-arm blow!

Good people of Nevada heed my prayer: Arise in might, prevent this brutal thing—

Assert your law-abiding spirit and disperse

The scoundrels that seek to pitch the ring!

Haven't those Nevada guys got any sense anyhow?

The testimony of a prominent physician:

FOUNTAIN CITY, Ind., June 17, 1896.

This certifies that I have been using F. O. in my practice. I have never found any medical preparation in 46 years of practice that is calculated to do so much good in so wide a range of diseases and leave no after bad effects.

In Diphtheria it has proved a perfect specific in my hands, and I had rather depend on it alone in that dreadful disease than the whole popular Materia Medica with that left out.

THE ARLINGTON HOUSE.

Legislative Headquarters at Carson and Popular Hotel.

The Arlington House at Carson is the legislative headquarters. After each adjournment of the two branches, the lobby of the hotel is crowded with members discussing various measures and exchanging views. It is the liveliest place in Carson, and if one desires to find a person they go to the Arlington.

Bob Grimmon, as he is familiarly known, is an agreeable and accommodating host, and is posted on all matters, and ready at all times to give information. He is an old-timer and knows almost every one; he can listen to the inquiries of three different guests at the same time and answer every one satisfactorily.

Lee McFarland, an old and trusted employee of the Parkersburg (O.) National Bank, is $43,000 short in his accounts. Too much stocks.

THE NEVADA LEGISLATURE.THE EIGHTEENTH SESSION—FIFTEENTH DAY.*The Equal Suffrage Question and the Prize Fight—Other Topics.

Carson, February 28, 1897. The fifteenth day of the legislative session brought a stormy scene to Carson, not among the members, however, for they were as calm and good natured as could be wished, but the elements were ugly, and legislators, as well as the common herd, had to suffer in consequence. Rain, snow and wind clashed for the mastery, and at times it was hard to tell which of the three had the best of it.

The attendance in both houses was better than last Friday, several of the sick members of last week answering the roll call this morning. Lem Allie, Speaker of the House, is improving, but is still confined to his room. For a day or two it was feared that the illness would result seriously, but his many friends will be pleased to learn of his improvement.

A number of ladies arrived from Reno this morning to be present at the women's suffrage meeting to-night. Your correspondent noticed Mrs. W. Webster and Mrs. W. W. Webster, Mrs. J. N. Evans, Mrs. J. R. Williamson, Mrs. George Alt and Mrs. H. J. Pratt. There are also ladies here from the Comstock and neighboring towns. Rev. T. Magill of Reno is also here giving aid and counsel to the ladies in their movement. It is believed that they will carry their point and bring the question before the people in such a manner as to destroy many of the objections to the right of suffrage to women.

The prize fight is a prominent subject of conversation here, as well as at Reno, and already there are indications that Carson will be at the front as a bidder for the fight. Whatever objections are raised to a Carsonite relating to transportation, accommodations or the lack of other facilities as far as Carson is concerned for as large a crowd as is anticipated, they simply pooh at the idea, and reply that Carson is strictly "in it" on any proposition, and, if obliged, can overcome any obstacle suggested. Hopes are running high, and the fact that Corbett and Fitzsimmons, Dan Stuart and others connected with the manly art are to become residents of Nevada has already had an effect to increase the price of real estate, and affords an opportunity for a lot of old stiffs to fill up on free "booze" while the enthusiasts are discussing the probable location, benefit to the State and result of the fight.

The legislative proceedings were rather tame to-day, the business being of a routine character and nothing of general importance being acted upon. Committees are still at work on a number of measures of importance that will be reported in a day or two.

Senate. Met at 11 A. M., President McCone in the Chair. Roll call. All present. Prayer by the chaplain. Journal read and approved.

Message from the Assembly announced the passage of Assembly bill 13 by that body.

Assembly bill 13, by McNaughton, to fix the State tax levy and distribute the same to the proper funds. Referred to Committee on Ways and Means.

Assembly Concurrent Resolution 1, by Hardesty—Opening of a certain portion of the western Shoshone Indian agency in Elko county for mining purposes. Adopted.

Message from the State Controller submitting report of deficiencies in State expenditures in the last two years. Total $5,994 42. Referred to Committee on Claims.

At 11:25 Senate took recess until 2 P. M.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

Roll call and no business, old or new, found to transact in the regular order thereof.

Skaggs gave notice that at an early date he would introduce a bill to prohibit raffles, grab bags and all other gambling games in the churches of the State.

At 2:15 Senate took recess until 7 o'clock, when a joint session of both houses will be held.

Assembly. Met at 11 A. M., McNaughton in the chair. Roll call and quorum present. Prayer by chaplain. Journal read and approved.

Assembly bill 9, Oliver—An act to provide for issuing bonds by Ormsby county. Passed 28 to 0.

Assembly bill 10, Oliver—An act to provide for issuing bonds by Ormsby county. Passed 29 to 0.

Senate bill 4, Summerfield—An act requiring the payment of poll tax under 60 years of age. Made special order for Thursday at 2 o'clock.

Assembly bill 1, Hatch—An act to provide for the preservation of wild game. Ordered engrossed.

Message from the Governor stating that he had approved and placed in the office of Secretary of State Assembly bill 8.

Senate substitute for Senate bill 1—An act to provide for the copying of the Journal of the Senate by Mrs. Ida Osgood. Referred to the Committee of the Whole.

SUNDAY NIGHT'S BLAZE.

The Home of Morris Ash Badly Damaged by Fire and Water.

The alarm of fire sounded last Sunday evening was caused by a small blaze in the home of Morris Ash in Powning's Addition. The streets were in a nasty condition, and it was some time before the fire boys could get their apparatus working. Wading through mud to one's shoe tops is no joke at any time, and to have to drag a heavy hosecart through sticky adobe adds considerable more "misery." The firemen did good work when once on the ground, and soon had the fire out.

Mr. Ash was overcome by smoke while fighting the fire, and it was some little time before he recovered from the stupefied condition into which he was thrown.

It is not known how the blaze started, but, judging from the appearance of things, a live coal must have popped from the stove onto the carpet, smoldering there until the draft occasioned by Mr. Ash opening the door caused the flames to burn up brightly. The loss is estimated at $1,500, partially covered by insurance.

The last that has been reported occurred within the last few days at the barn of James Mayberry, on the south side of the river. Yesterday a neighbor discovered that the building had been broken into, and a quantity of harness and tools abstracted. Not only had the thieves taken what they wanted, but the material left had been so damaged that it is practically worthless.

The Ideal Panacea.

James L. Francis, Alderman, Chicago says: "I regard Dr. King's New Discovery as an ideal panacea for coughs colds and lung complaints, having used it in my family for the last five years, to the exclusion of physicians' prescriptions or other preparations."

Rev. John Burgus, Kekuk, Iowa, writes: "I have been a minister of the Methodist Episcopal Church for 50 years or more, and have never found anything as beneficial, or that gave such a speedy relief as Dr. King's New Discovery." Try this Ideal Cough Remedy now. Trial bottles free at S. J. Hodgkinson's Drug Store.

A Valuable Prescription.

Editor Morrison of Worthington, Ind., Sun, writes: "You have a valuable prescription in Electric Bitters, and I can cheerfully recommend it for constipation and sick headache, and as a general system tonic it has no equal."

A man named J. H. Reinhardt was arrested yesterday on a charge of unlawfully taken unto himself various and divers gardening implements, the property of J. M. Blanchard, and the officers found the property in an out-house on the premises occupied by Reinhardt. The defendant entered a plea of not guilty, and the case was set for to-day at 1 o'clock.

What Carson Evidently Needed.

Last week after the prize fight bill had been passed and signed an enterprising book agent canvassed Carson for an edition of the Bible with all the latest improvements. Judging from the number of orders taken, the inhabitants of that burg have evidently suffered from a dearth of that class of literature, and a novelty always sells well.

wondered how they managed to get the weight of a live fish learned that that was really a very simple thing to do.
The fish is put into a pail of water,
which is weighed with the fish in it.
Then the fish is taken out and pail and water are weighed without it.—New
